The People

The population is about 70 percent black, 20 percent mixed and 7 percent white, another 3 percent are recent immigrants from around the world.

Barbadians (or Bajans) will surprise you with their warmth, casual charm and sophistication. They are by nature open, thoughtful and generous. They love a party but will have time for anyone, they like people, no matter what background, race, and disposition.

The Climate

It is warm and sunny all year round with an average daytime high of 75°F -80°F (30°C). The nights are slightly cooler. The prevailing northeast trade winds blow steadily so that although it is bright and sunny, it is not unbearably hot. The rain usually comes in quick showers. The dry season lasts from January to June.

Money

It is best to get Barbados Dollars but US dollars at a fixed rate of BDS$1.98 to US$1 are accepted at most major stores and hotels, and by many taxi drivers. Major credit cards and international travellers' cheques (not Eurocheques) are accepted at most hotels, restaurants and shops.

On Arrival in Barbados

Just prior to landing in Barbados you will be asked to fill in an immigration form. You will need to complete both arrival and departure details. The purpose of your visit is a holiday. At the airport there are baggage handlers to assist you. They charge BDS$1 per item.

On Departure from Barbados

If you are leaving by plane, be at the airport at least 2 hours before your flight time. On leaving Barbados, everyone will be required to pay a BDS$25 departure tax.

Security and Crime

Use common sense in Barbados as you would in any other cosmopolitan area. Place valuables in the hotel safe; do not leave them unattended in your room or at the beach. Lock your hotel room at all times. Avoid walking alone after dark on deserted streets and beaches.

Taxis

In Barbados Taxis do not have meters, but charge pre-determined fares, based on location and mileage.

Public Transport

You can travel to any part of Barbados by bus – either the larger Transport Board Buses, smaller privately operated minibuses, or ZR vans. All cost BDS$1.50 for any journey. You can get a bus at numerous bus stops on most major thoroughfares. Bus stops will be marked "In to City" or "Out of City".

Car Rental

You must present a driver's licence from your home country along with a fee of BDS$10. Driving licences for visitors are available at police stations and from car rental companies. Driving is on the left in Barbados. Barbadians blow their horns either as a warning of their presence, or as a greeting. Wearing seatbelts is mandatory.

What to Bring

Light, casual wear made of cotton, linen or other natural fabrics. Evenings can be slightly more formal. Swim wear is unacceptable except at the beach. Don't forget books and sunscreens.
